LOSING CANDIDATES MUST RESPECT THE MANDATE OF THE PEOPLE.

Candidates who lose in a general election and fail to receive the mandate of the people, should recontest the NGE in 2027, instead of abusing the court of disputed returns provisions.

This was the announcement by the Minister for Treasury and Member for Kavieng, after the Supreme Court of Papua New Guinea dismissed Glen Kiso's foolish and farcical application for leave to review Judge Manahu's ruling that originally dismissed Kiso's application.

" Its all over for Kiso and those faceless losing candidates that colluded to fund Kiso's Court costs" said the Kavieng MP.

He said Kiso would now have to reimburse his court costs which may be over K450,000, failing which, Kiso would be declared bankrupt.

The Kavieng MP said his legal team were also exploring appropriate civil actions, that can be taken against Kiso for defamatory, fabricating false allegations and malicious intent against him.

" The NGE 2022 was a free and fair election in New Ireland and especially, in peaceful Kavieng electorate. The Pangu Pati platform was comprehensively supported by the majority of the Kavieng voters resulting in 50.1% of all votes cast for myself and winning on just the primary or No.1 vote only" said the Kavieng MP.
